senger traffic indicates a return of prosperity.

The passing of the year is indicated by the elections of commencement day officers and the talk of graduation gowns.

On the line of the New Haven road, between Waterford and Milstone, a large quantity of wood has been cut off this winter.

A Washington despatch states that Senator Brandegee has moved into his new senate office building, a force of clerks, occupying a desirable suite.

The New London street department is placing crushed stones on the Norwich road, where Highway Commissioner Darrow has decided to do the first of his spring repaving.

In Saturday's Middletown Press, C.
A. C. of Cromwell, Conn., an approximation of the late Rev. J. Riley Johnson, who died in Nyack, N. Y., recently, aged 81, and was for years pastor of the Universalist church, Norwich.

The Sisters of Mercy of Middletown have purchased the property formerly owned by the late Julius T. Pratt at Crescent beach. The property comprises two cottages and several buildings, totaling about four acres near Calvin's island at the beach.

Of interest to Norwich friends is the announcement that Rev. Elliott B.
Barber of North Orange, Mass., preached at the Universalist church in Middletown on Sunday. Mr. Barber has been called as pastor by the church.

The division superintendents and other transportation officials of the New Haven road have arranged the spring and summer timetable. It is stated that no change of importance will be made from the schedule of summer trains of last year. The date on which the new service will go into effect has not been fixed.

Telegraphic orders were received at the United States navy recruiting station in Hartford Saturday, authorizing the recruiting officer to resume the enlistment of apprentice seamen, yea-men, ship's cooks, bakers, etc., now that the quarantine at the navy building station, Newport, R. I., for scarlet fever, has been raised, as the recruits are sent to Newport.

A large photograph of Gov. William A. Buckingham with the members of his staff has been given to the Young Men's Republican club of Bridgeport by George P. Holt, a Grand Army veteran, whom the photograph was presented in due time by Mrs. John W. Fitch, now deceased, who cared for Mr. Holt when he was brought back from the front and admitted to a Bridgeport hospital.

WILL MEET AT NEW LONDON.

Baptist Association Was to Meet Here on the Anniversary Celebration Dates.

The New London Baptist association, which held its annual meeting in New London last fall with the Mon-tauk Avenue Baptist church, New London, was invited to hold its meeting this year with the First Baptist church of Norwich.

Since the invitation was extended and accepted last year the city of Norwich has been making elaborate preparations for celebrating its two hundred and fiftieth anniversary and the date coincides with the one on which the association holds its meeting. Because of the fact it has been decided that it is undesirable to hold the meeting here.

He therefore communicated with Rev. Joseph A. Elder, pastor of the Huntington Street Baptist church of New London asking his assistance in this matter of entertaining the association by having the association meet with his church.

At the Huntington church covenant meeting which was held in the vestry of the church Friday night it was voted to come to the aid of the First Baptist church of Norwich and to entertain next September. The Huntington Street church, by the way, has extended invitations to the association for several years but other places have been chosen.

At Spiritual Academy.

At the Spiritual Academy on Park street the attendance Sunday evening filled all the seating capacity, and the service was of much interest as conducted by Mrs. Annie Banks Scott, test medium. Mrs. Scott gave all her time to messages, not lecturing, and her salutatory messages were especially pleasing to her hearers. A fine alto solo, "The Everlasting Day," was rendered by Mrs. George Deane.

Halle Club Tea.

One of the pleasantest of their regular afternoon teas was enjoyed Sunday last at the Halle club in their room at No. 142 Main street. More than a hundred were present, and there were a number of musical selections by the members.

Miss Lillian Havens poured, and those serving were the Misses Jennie Kimball, Helen Stanton, Louise Fitzgerald, Myra Mathews, Doris Wain, Elizabeth Ortmann and Jennie Clifford, comprising the committee for the month.

PERSONAL.

Thomas Fitzgerald was a Sunday visitor in Williamantia.

James McGarry was a visitor with friends in New London on Sunday.

Avery C. Smith has returned from a trip south, which occupied a number of weeks.

Frank Anderson of New London was in this city Sunday calling upon friends.

George Loring of Lincoln avenue has returned from the automobile show in Boston.

Mrs. Arthur Sheed of Preston visited Mrs. Fernando Wheeler in Stonington last week.

Theodore Story of the Yale Medical school was at his home on Laurel Hill Avenue for the week-end.

Frederick Tyler, who has been ill for a number of weeks, is improving, and able to be about the house.

Henry T. Nelson has returned from a southern trip to Florida and Cuba, and spent Sunday at his home here.

Charles F. Chapman returned to New York Sunday night after a brief visit at his home on Sachem Terrace.

Miss Ruth Nichols of Williamantia has been spending a few days with Miss Faye Newland of Williams street.

Miss Margaret Bailey of Shelton was the guest over Sunday of Mrs.
Patrick Cassidy of Washington street.

Edward T. Walsh, local manager for the Wm. W. H. Page Boller company, spent the evening in New London Sunday.

James Haley left Saturday for Harford, where he will be a waiter in Bond's cafe. He was formerly at the Waugrean.

Mrs. E. P. Douglas, Mrs. Charles White and Mrs. Edwin White of Groton were in Norwich Friday night attending the prize speaking contest at the Norwich Free Academy.

Irving A. Kelley, formerly head baker at the Waugrean hotel, later of the Del-Hoff, has resigned his position, to take a position as baker in Bond's cafe at Hartford.

Mrs. Joab Rogers of Home street, accompanied by Miss Louise Benn, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Benn, left Saturday afternoon to visit in Hartford—New London Globe.

COMMON PLEAS HELD TODAY.

Cases Assigned for Morning and Afternoon.

Common pleas will be in session here today, both morning and afternoon, in the court room of the case of James Farrell vs. William Brennan, which was heard by Judge John F. Wainwright, Jr. Oscar E. Green of New London vs. Isaac Bragaw of New London is the case set for this afternoon.
Judge Lucius P. Brown of the city court will hear this case, as Judge Wainwright is disqualified, because C. L.
Avery, who represents Bragaw, is one of the law firm of which Mr. Wainwright is a member.

Saturday at New London at the assault and battery case of Thomas Ward & Co. of New York city, claimed that they sent two barrels of whiskey to Dennis J. Quill, proprietor of the Atlantic house, Quill says he didn't receive the two barrels.

After the testimony in the Quill case Judge Wainwright announced he would reserve decision.

Art Teachers' Officers.

The Connecticut Manual Arts Teachers' association met at Hartford on Saturday and chose Solon F. Jones of Hartford as president, A. W. Wentworth of New Haven, vice president; J. W. Andrews of New Britain, secretary and treasurer. The gathering was addressed by Prof. A. W. Dowd of Columbia university.

Freight Car Leaves the Rails.

Sunday afternoon about 3 o'clock there was an accident to a freight train just below the Norwich Town station. One car left the rails and rolled over, causing the death of a man, and the injury of several others.
The car was derailed and kept on the track until moved later.

Car Had Broken Gear.

Car No. 152 on the Montville line due into the square at 6.45 was tied up with a broken gear Saturday evening.
It was stuck in the traffic. The car was taken to the barn where it was found that one of the gears had broken into seven pieces. The car was in charge of Motorman Leonard and Conductor Smith.

Sheltering Arms Service.

There was a large attendance at the service at the Sheltering Arms Sunday afternoon, when Rev. M. J. Simpson, rector of Grace Episcopal church, Yankee, conducted the service. The choir of the church sang, and the service was one of much interest.

Hearing on Tuesday.

The hearing on the amendment to the charter of the Compressed Air company is assigned for Tuesday of this week before the committee on incorporations at Hartford.

Funerals.

Miss Mary A. Wales.

News of the death of Miss Mary A.
Wales on Saturday, at her home in Norwich, came as a great blow to her family. She was a member of the church since last November by a complication of diseases, which also involved weeks of quarantine, her case has been a peculiar one. She was a devoted wife, ending to a life of so much promise seems one of the inscrutable ways of Providence.

Miss Wales lived in Norwich for several years, while attending the Art school, and since then she has been a frequent visitor in town. She was the guest of honor at many a social affair. She was a communicant of Christ church, being united while the present bishop Nelson was rector here.

Her work as an artist showed marked talent and originality, both in its design and coloring, and pointed towards a brilliant future. She was taking a special course in art at the Teachers' college in New York, when her last illness began. Since then her brave fight for life has been the subject of her friends daily hopes and prayers.

The quiet beauty of her life, the sweet sincerity of her character, full of the joy of living, and the pathos of her death which still left a fragrant memory in the hearts of those who loved her.

Prayers were read at her parents' home on Sunday afternoon, the burial taking place at Holbrook, Mass., on Monday.

TO SHUT UP SHOP.

Norfolk Hat Manufacturers to Go Out of Business.

At South Norwalk the Wolhausen hat company, which undertook to resume business on the "open" shop plan last week, has voted to dissolve the partnership and sell the business. The present members of the firm are desiring moving to other places, and Mr. Wolhausen contemplates returning to Germany with his family in July, providing matters progress satisfactorily here.

NORWICH BULLETIN. MONDAY, MARCH 15, 1909.

SIGNS OF SPRING IN NORWICH

Much Activity in the Building Line with Busy Time Promised for Contractors—An Unusual Boom Underway

The power drill is at work in the Shannon building cellar for the excavation of the ledge for the southwest corner, and as soon as the plans are intended and the contract awarded, work of erecting the new Shannon building will be started. The board men erected about the property to protect the public is to be covered with advertisements.

The Plant-Cadden Co.'s new five story building in Main street will be started as soon as the material arrives.
The 65 foot hole through solid rock will be made by the power drill, for the plunger elevator, has been completed, and the material for the building is expected daily by the contractor. Their six story building adjoining the Shannon building will be started soon, it is stated by the company, the lease of the ground floor expecting to occupy it before fall.

Just as soon as the plans are completed, the new storehouse for the W. H.
Page Boller Co. will be started in Greenfield, the company feeling it to be finished at the earliest possible moment, for the better handling of its goods. The industrial building, which is being erected at the corner of the Hartley building in Franklin street will undergo extensive improvements.

Many runners are active in the other sales of property, which will mean new and better buildings, but as yet they are only rumors. The construction, however, can look forward to a busy season.

The new residence of John L. Mitchell, in Rockwell terrace, is ready for the plastering, while H. W. Swift has the same stage of completion, waiting for warmer weather before starting the plastering. There are twelve rooms in each of the tenements.

Grand Commandery, K. T.
MEETS AT NEW LONDON.

Reception to G. M. Long Tonight—Sesion on Tuesday.

The grand convocation of Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of the state will be held at New London Tuesday.
The most interesting ceremonies connected with the order will be the reception to the grand commander, George M. Long this evening. This part of the programme will be rendered by all the temple members and will be the distinguished head of the commandery. His star will be likewise received with high honors.

On Tuesday the grand convocation will begin its session. Officers will be elected and installed at this session at Masonic Temple. About 250 knights will attend the convocation. The grand commander and departments will be submitted.

It is 11 years since the grand commandery of the state of Connecticut New London. Eminent Sir Commander George R. Morris has been assisted by his efficient committee of Sir George M. Long, grand commander of the grand convocation of New London.
Some of the best work of the order to be seen in the state will be exhibited at this evening and a number from here will attend.

DEPUTY FOR CONNECTICUT.

Charles L. Hubbard Visits Hartford—Five Jewels Presented.

There was a very large attendance at the communication of Charter Oak Lodge of Perfection at Masonic temple, Hartford, Thursday evening, the occasion being the official visitation of lustrous Brother Charles L. Hubbard, thirty-third degree, of Norwich, and also of special interest because of the presentation of past three presiding officers.

The receiving jewels, which were presented by Thrice Potent Master William W. Frager, were Amos Pilabury, the first thrice potent master of Charter Oak lodge, and a member of it was instituted about forty-five years ago, and who is the only living charter member of that body; J. Knox Hall, past master, and a member of the lodge, and a number from here will attend.

There were many distinguished members of the Masonic fraternity present from various parts of the state, several of whom made short addresses, complimenting the lodge upon the excellence of its past three presiding officers.

The work was preceded by a banquet at 6 o'clock.

Incidents in Society

Miss Edith Whiting of Old street spent Sunday in Pawtucket, R. I.

Traver Briggs of Yale college spent Saturday and Sunday at his home on Broad street.

Miss Young and Miss Elizabeth Trumbull served at the Norwich club on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Turner entertained informally at cards on Thursday evening.

Joseph I. Lamb of New Haven was the guest over Sunday of his mother, Mrs. Mary S. Lamb of Oak street.

Mr. and Mrs. Munroe Benson have leased the "stone cottage" on Warren street and will occupy their new home shortly.

Charles F. Chapman of New York was the guest over Sunday of his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Chapman of Sachem terrace.

THIRD COMPANY HIGHLY PRAISED FOR WORK.

Declared by Lieut. Pratt to Be the Best He Has Visited in the Corps—Officers Going to Bridgeport.

On Sunday, in response to orders issued by Colonel Fitch, the range detail of the Third company went to Fort Wright for a day's practice in range and marksmanship. The Third company, consisting of Lieut. Coleman, Lieut.
Church, with 16 members of the company, left here at 8.30 took the General Ayer for Fort Wright, from New London. At the island is a somewhat foggy, so little early work at range was done. The range was the same company of New London also went to the fort, and as they were short handed, the extra men of the Third company's range assisted them. All but Sergeant Ortmann of the Third's first detail were present.

Lieut. Pratt, who instructed the local companies recently, was at the island, and, while not ordered there, very kindly gave all the assistance he could, and the officers and men fully appreciate and are deeply indebted to him for his kindness here and there.
After the work had been finished, he stated that he was tickled with the work of the Third company, having previously told the Fort Wright officials that it was the best in the corps that he had visited, notwithstanding the experience of the two New London companies. The sergeant in charge of the station stated that he never had a volunteer detail turn out the work they did. As Lieut. Pratt had given them the preliminary instructions, he was much pleased at the result. The work was done on the 12 inch gun stations.
Captain Harberg is battery officer, Lieut. Coleman range officer, and Lieut.
Church guide officer.

All of the officers of the corps, including the two local companies, are ordered to Bridgeport Wednesday for the election of a major, vice Hurley, retired. There are five candidates, Captain Smith of Greenwich, corps adjutant, who is backed by Colonel Fitch, and who it is believed the local officers will favor; Captain Weed of Norwich corps paymaster, favored by his Norwich adherents; Captain Wilson, retired, of Bridgeport, backed by Major Hurley; Captain Rogers of New London, backed by Major Hull, and Captain Ryder of Norwich, backed by the members of the Eighth company, Captain Conner of New London, by priority, is entitled to the office, and Captain Hoberg is second, but neither want it.

With so many candidates, it looks as though if the local battalion is united that they can practically swing the election.

Secretary to Secretary of the Navy.

Former Connecticut man, Charles E. Taylor, has become private secretary to Secretary of the Navy Meyer.

Mr. Taylor is an old newspaper man, and who it is believed the local officers
will favor; Captain Weed of Norwich
corps paymaster, favored by his Norwich adherents; Captain Wilson, retired, of Bridgeport, backed by Major Hurley; Captain Rogers of New London, backed by Major Hull, and Captain Ryder of Norwich, backed by the members of the Eighth company, Captain Conner of New London, by priority, is entitled to the office, and Cap-
want it.
